

ENTRANCE KONG CHOW TEMPLE

Dear Father:

2522 Waring Street
Berkeley, Calif.

This Chinese

April 16, 1945

temple is up there
flights of stairs at the top
this picture is the entrance.
we climbed up the other night and looked it over.
we like our new place
very much and also the people in the house
too. Love from both.

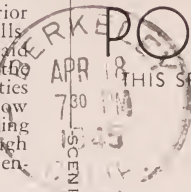

Marion and George

520 PINE STREET

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

KONG CHOW TEMPLE

is San Francisco's oldest, where thousands of Chinese worshipped for almost a century. Its interior is sumptuous with gilded carving, golden scrolls, enameled urns, bronze vases, embroideries, inlaid teak tables, and statues. The altar, seated the shrines and spacious for several worship-parties simultaneously, is of unusual Oriental beauty. Gow Bui and Chim are symbolic signs for conducting the Deities. The Temple's entrance leading through a large court and fountain is, indeed, very enchanting.

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS ONLY

Mr. Robert F. Hibbett
1110 S. Brook Street
Honesville 3,
Ky.